To Whom It May Concern:

We have personally engaged Poss Britten to cater for our office opening of 100 plus guests, a surprise 60th birthday party and recently a fundraising function catering once again to over 100 guests. We have also attended functions of 300 plus guests catered for by Poss.

At all times Poss and her staff have proved to be professional, efficient, extremely friendly and helpful, giving advice and assistance whenever needed. Our preparation area may not have been large, but Poss has a unique ability to adapt to her given surroundings and present the most delectable array of food imaginable.

I have absolutely no hesitation in recommending Poss Britten of P.B.Catering to cater for any function assigned to her. I feel no need to obtain a second quote as I know Poss provides true value for money, her presentation, quantity, quality and variety of her menu is faultless and most importantly, my husband and I are able to enjoy the company of our guests knowing the catering is being so professionally attended to.

Yours sincerely
